We all need to breathe...
We all want to breathe...
We all want to communicate...
We all need to communicate ...
Communication needs breath.
Breath needs air.
So, don't communicate with polluted air!
&, please, don't communicate it!
We Fellow Citizens of this World
have a second best option:
English...
Reasonable is Esperanto!

The linguistic consequence in cultures of sustainability:

- 1. Lowering social risks
by democratic bilingualism.*
- 2. Lowering environmental risks
by ecological adequacy.*

*Don't be mistaken:
It's all ESPERANTO!
Take the right breath...*
